ART OF
THE SELFIE
PRIVATE VIEWINGS AND PARTIES

museum.wales

We are pleased to present a rare and exciting opportunity to book private viewings of this season's principal exhibition Drych ar yr Hunlun / Art of the Selfie, with limited dates throughout the year.

Guests looking for a unique one-off experience in the capital will be welcomed to the National Museum Cardiff with options for drinks receptions and canapes, and private access to our impressionist and modernist galleries, before being invited to view our latest loan, Van Gogh's Portrait of the Artist, 1887.

Is a self-portrait the original selfie? Our exciting new Amgueddfa Cymru exhibition Drych ar yr Hunlun / Art of the Selfie explores and asks this question, looking at how artists through time, from Rembrandt and Van Gogh to Bedwyr Williams and Anya Paintsil, see and represent themselves.

Throughout history, many artists have used self-portraits as ways to explore their identities and express themselves to the world. Van Gogh painted no fewer than thirty-five self-portraits and so became arguably one of the most recognizable faces in Western art.

Alongside other artists from the national collection of Wales, this exhibition will feature Van Gogh's Portrait of the Artist (1887), on loan from Musée D'Orsay, Paris.
